

Try and put the flue pipe that is @ 45 degrees through the wall, as high as possible, or there will be insufficient room for the straight piece of flue pipe above the cooker. Target height should be minimum 1,600mm from the floor.

Stainless flue pipe going through the wall to be fixed and sealed in place with cement mortar. Ensure it is at 45 degrees to horizontal and coming through the wall minimum of 200mm

DATE January 2015

ECO Range Cooker Co, Canterbury, Chimney 45 assembly